

Thought for the week:

Loving it in Pink!

Thank you all for your hard work on Friday, especially the Head Student Team. The atmosphere in the Common Room was brilliant and best of all, you raised an amazing £357.72

Well done!!!

See you on Friday for our Halloween Cake sale. And remember, if you haven't got your Leadmill ticket yet, please see the Head Student Team.

Y13 Assembly on Black History Month

13X - Thursday, 13Z Friday

Y12 Assembly, Thursday Lunchtime in the Main Hall. Please arrive promptly at 12.50 and bring your lunch with you. All to attend please.

On this Day in History:

1642: Royalist forces defeat the Parliamentarians at Edgehill, the first major battle of the English Civil War.

1956: The Hungarian Revolution begins as thousands take to the streets to demand an end to Soviet rule.

www.bbc.co.uk/history/on this day

Oxbridge Meeting

Message from Miss Murray Brown: All Oxbridge candidates to go to 105 at 3.35 on Monday (today). This will be our final practice session in the lead up to the entry exams.

Mock Interviews

Some students are starting to get interviews through from UCAS – please let us know when you have an interview so that we can organise a mock and put you through your paces before the real thing!

Staircases

Could all Sixth Formers please NOT use the lift staircase at the end of morning break: this staircase gets very congested so please use one of the other ones. Thank you.

The Water Cooler

Please do not use this to empty bottles out, wash fruit, wash the dishes or wash your hands. It is only for filling bottles please. Ta.

If you are thinking of going on the residential this Half Term break you MUST see Mrs Peacock ASAP!!

Enjoy Half Term next week – we look forward to seeing you on Monday 6th November 😊